

KEEP LEYLAND BRITISH!

Stop Thatcher's sell-out to the multi-nationals

IN RECENT APPALLING AND DISGRACEFUL MOVES, which it has gone out of its way to hide from both Parliament and the British people, Margaret Thatcher's Tory Government is now proposing to sell off British Leyland to foreign, mainly American, multi-nationals. Tory Trade and Industry Secretary Paul Channon was forced to admit in the House of Commons recently that talks with the US motor giant General Motors were now "at an advanced stage." GM already owns Vauxhall and has just bought Lotus.

Just as the fate of Westland as a British company hangs in the balance and we stand to lose our last helicopter manufacturer to foreign ownership, the Thatcher Government is now attempting to hand over to American control the last major British-owned motor company.

This latest Tory sell-out also involves the Japanese firm Honda. Honda is reportedly aiming to take a 10 per-cent stake in Austin-Rover, with a seat on the Board. Honda already has a technical tie-up with Leyland, having collaborated with it for some time in the area of design work.

In the ruthless economic offensive which they have for so long been conducting against Britain, the Japanese never act out of altruistic motives. Japan and her captains of industry act always exclusively in their own corporate and national interests. It is this attitude that has made the Japanese economy the most successful in the world.

It would appear that the Japs have got what they wanted from their earlier collaboration with Austin-Rover. It is now proposed that Honda's share in the company will involve its taking over the design and development of new engine, transmission and electronic components. It remains to be seen whether Austin-Rover becomes little more than a panel-bashing operation functioning on behalf of new Japanese masters who, despite their minority stake in the firm, will hold the technical whip-hand.

Turning to Land Rover, despite the profitability of this division and the opposition of its management and workers, Thatcher and Channon cannot become the first major nation to relinquish control of its own motor industry. In practice there would be little to stop the foreign buyers, if they so desired, from closing down their British subsidiaries entirely. One factor that frequently motivates take-overs is that a company can eliminate competitors simply by acquiring them. If a British company is taken over by a foreign multi-national there is nothing to prevent its new owner from then 'rationalising' its own enlarged operation by closing down its newly acquired factories, in part or in whole, and concentrating their functions in other parts of the globe.

MORE WORKERS DUE FOR SCRAPHEAP

Many thousands of British workers might then be deprived of their livelihoods and thrown on the scrapheap, but this would be of small interest to the Thatcher Government; it would have acquired by the sale a bit more money to refill the rapidly emptying government treasury.

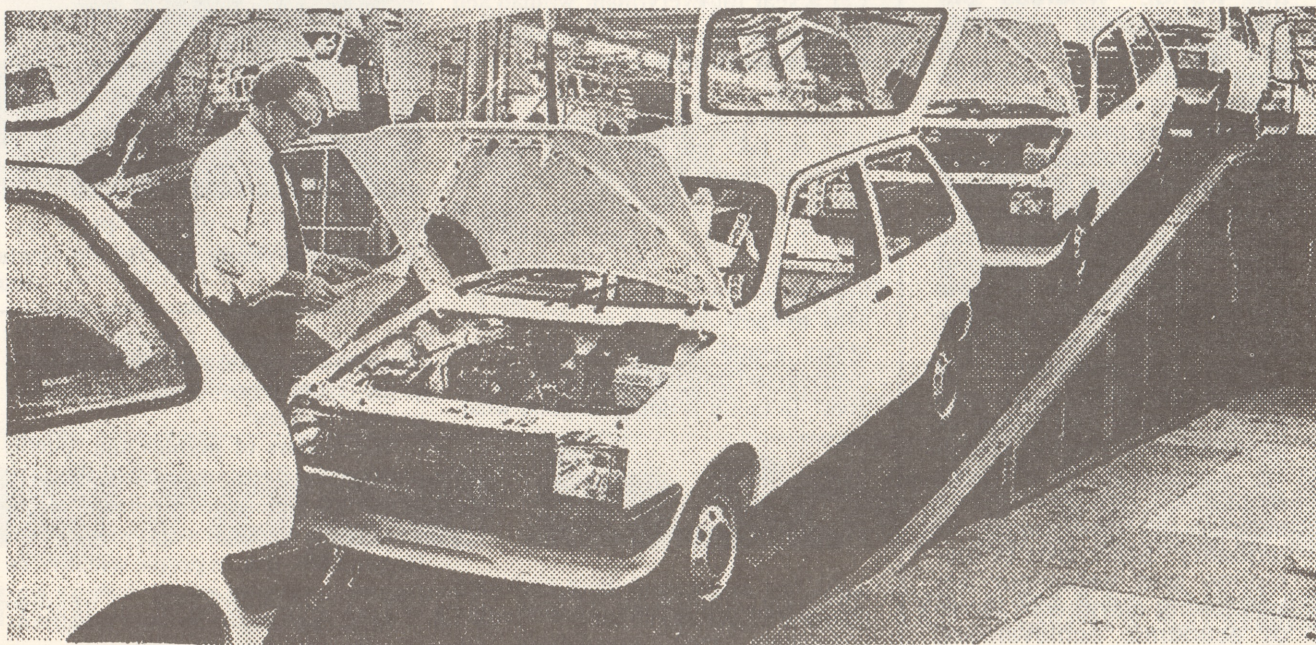

In addition to this motive, there would appear also the desire to integrate Britain's economic resources yet further into the international 'New Economic Order' in which the Tories so ardently believe.

The typical excuse for this policy of sell-out is that it is the only way to make British firms profitable and efficient. As well as being an insult to the British people (workers and managers alike) this is also transparent drivel.

The Government could very easily solve the problem of the unprofitability of British manufacturing companies (where it genuinely exists) by the simple act of closing the home market to imports. By such an action the Leyland car and truck divisions could be enabled to expand sales and production to the point at which they would become thoroughly viable, while Land Rover could, by doing likewise, greatly increase the profits it is already making and thus be able to put aside sufficient funds for huge reinvestment in modern plant.

Parallel with this policy, the Government could place a ban on the investment of the vast sums of British money now going overseas and thus make available far more investment capital for British industry at home.

These are the policies of Nationalism, which we would apply to regenerate British industry — as opposed to the policies of Internationalism which have been the cornerstone of Tory (and other parties') economic doctrines for many years — policies which have in fact all but ruined what used to be the workshop of the world.

The Tory leadership issue

WHY TALK ABOUT CHANGING THE JOCKEY WHEN IT'S THE HORSE ITSELF THAT IS CLAPPED OUT?

SINCE MRS. THATCHER burned her fingers over the Westland affair, there has been talk in Tory circles about the possibility of a change in party leadership.

The various candidates for the job have been discussed in the press. Leading contenders seem to be Douglas Hurd, Sir Geoffrey Howe, Michael Heseltine and Norman Tebbit. John Biffen has also been mentioned.

But will it really make any difference if there is such a change of Tory leader? We say it will make none at all.

The change would be purely cosmetic. There might be just a few minor alterations of policy — plus of course an alteration of 'style'. But in basic terms Toryism will carry on just as before.

SAME ROAD TO RUIN

Britain's manufacturing industry will continue to be systematically smashed to pieces by unrestricted foreign imports, the flow overseas of investment capital and the wholesale sell out of British firms to American take-over bidders.

As a result there will be no significant reduction in the level of unemployment.

We will stay in the Common Market, which, bit-by-bit, will continue to usurp the sovereignty of the British Govern-

The collapse of law and order will not abate but will only accelerate, as the soft 'liberal' policies of law enforcement continue to hold sway.

The immigrants will continue to pour in; there will be more and more racial unrest, and government will go on capitulating to the vociferous demands of the 'multi-racial' lobby for yet more concessions and hand-outs to Blacks.

We will meanwhile continue undermining and antagonising one of the few friends we have in the outside world: South Africa.

Britain will go on pouring out billions to subsidise the 'Third World' breeding process while our old folk at home go short of the essentials of living.

The betrayal of loyal British people in Northern Ireland will not abate; our Government will continue to bargain with the Irish Republic for a sell out of Ulster.

And in the meantime the terror campaign of the IRA — given fresh heart by every new government betrayal — will carry on.

These policies — the same as before in all vital respects — will simply be 'explained' to the British public in slightly different language and with a slight change in tone.

In fact, to quote an old French saying, the more things change the more they will stay as they are.

To quote Spearhead magazine, the changing of jockeys is not going to make the slightest difference when it is the horse itself that is clapped out — the horse being British Conservatism.

The only possibility of REAL change will come through the emergence of an entirely new force in British politics, as remote from the old Toryism as it is from the old Socialism and the old Liberalism.

We intend to become that new force. Given time, we shall succeed in our aim.

DIFFERENT FACES; SAME DOCTRINE

Tory course to national ruin will continue, regardless of whether leadership lies in hands of Thatcher (right), Heseltine (centre), Howe (right) or others wait to sell it out to General Motors. If GM acquires the firm it will most likely close down its engine and transmission plants, at the cost of many British jobs, in order to transfer these operations to the United States. Land Rover and BL trucks division are the major suppliers of military vehicles to the British Armed Forces. The implications here for national defence are as serious as in the case of Westland.

With the sell-out of British Leyland to these multi-nationals, Britain would

BRITISH YOUTH ABANDONED

IT CAN BE FAIRLY STATED as a general principle that the attitude of a nation's rulers towards its youth is a measure of those rulers' attitude towards the whole future of that nation.

One symptom of the attitude of Britain's politicians towards the upbringing of her youth is the present state of her educational system. A leading headmaster, Dr. John Rae, recently remarked to a meeting of the British Institute of Management that Britain has "one of the worst publicly maintained educational systems of any developed country in the world." Whereas our major industrial competitors spare no efforts to fit their youth for the world in which they will have to live and work by providing them with the technical skills basic to modern life, British youngsters — relatively tiny numbers of whom continue their education beyond school-leaving age — come out of school barely equipped at all with such skills.

The degeneration of British education goes very much deeper. All ideas of excellence are being steadily expunged throughout Britain's comprehensive schools in the name of 'equality'. Standards of discipline and behaviour are collapsing along with those of academic achievement, while little attention is paid to the development of physique among youth as well as of basic pride in themselves.

All this is hardly surprising in an atmosphere in which the school curriculum is increasingly coming to include such subjects as 'peace studies' and 'history' courses that amount to little more than left-wing, anti-British and anti-white propaganda — all at the expense of the teaching of skills useful to the individual pupil but also potentially a matter of life or death for the entire British Nation.

The youth of Britain will only see a better future under a Nationalist order. A Nationalist government alone will build a powerful sense of a common racial identity and national purpose as the moral bedrock on which each generation of British youth will be raised. Under such a government all will have both the right and the duty to work; full employment will be assured and the necessary training given to each individual according to ability through an appropriately designed educational system, which will inculcate patriotism and discipline as well as skills. Under this system male youth will undergo a vigorous programme of physical and military training. The natural roles of the sexes will be strengthened and honoured. Young women will be given the encouragement to fulfil the functions of healthy motherhood and young men will be taught to work and, where necessary, to fight.

The young will be brought up to be strong, fit, proud, self-confident and self-disciplined in the cause of their race and nation. This must be our first duty to the future.

SUICIDE OF THE WEST

THE GOVERNMENT last month delivered what must be the ultimate insult to Britain's old folk by increasing their heating allowance to — 10p a week!

No, the announcement was not a sick joke; that actually is the figure that was decided upon. It will not take effect until July, when we will be long past this freezing Winter.

Why just 10p? We would like it to be more. Social Services Secretary Norman Fowler said, but we just don't have the money.

Don't have the money? When yearly this same Government is lashing out bounty to the 'Third World' currently estimated annually at around £1.2 billion!

£1.2 billion amounts to more than £21 a year for every man, woman and child in Britain. Or to put it another way it approximates to £1 a week for every pensioner.

And that is just government aid; it does not take into account the massive aid programme being carried out by private bodies in this country, such as Oxfam, Christian Aid and Band Aid.

The contrast between this meanness towards our own old folk and the generosity towards Africans and Asians and others would be bad enough if the overseas aid programme was doing any good; in fact it is doing no good whatsoever.

FAST BREEDING RATE

As fast as we send these backward peoples our money, food parcels and technology their populations are increasing, so that for every million mouths we have to feed today there will be 2 million in just a few years' time.

Just to take Ethiopia for one example, the population of that country 10 years ago was 27 million. Now it is 41 million. Just how many more will it be 10 years from now?

Already the White Race is a small minority on this planet. At the slow rate at which white people are having children and the rapidity with which the coloured world is breeding, we shall be an even smaller minority by the end of the present century.

And one of the reasons why our own people are having so few children is the bleakness of the economic outlook. There is very little economic encouragement to British or other white people to have large families today. Yet much of the economic resources that we could use to sustain our own population growth we are throwing away to the so-called 'developing countries'.

We use those inverted commas of course because the truth of the matter is that most of these countries are not 'developing' at all; they are just breeding greater and greater numbers of people without in any significant way increasing their economic resources for the feeding of those people. The result?

Through overseas aid, we are subsidising our own destruction

BLEAK FUTURE FOR BRITISH KIDS
Many of the young, like the old, are left to rot in poverty so that Africans may multiply

The feeding of the exploding millions of the 'Third World' continues to fall to us poor suckers!

The leaders of politics and 'public opinion' in Britain and other Western countries pretend of course that by feeding the coloured world we will earn its gratitude, that its people will love us for our generosity.

In fact nothing of the kind is happening. The Third World still hates us — a hatred born out of envy.

By letting our own people go short in order to help feed them we do not earn their appreciation; we just earn their contempt.

DIGGING OUR OWN GRAVES

They regard us — and quite rightly so — as utterly insane, for they can see that we are just digging our own graves!

They are more than happy to let us continue with this insanity, for the end result of it all will be that they will simply swamp us — outbreed us off the face of the earth.

People talk about the 'developing countries' as a 'problem' — in fact it is the state of mind of our own leaders — of politics, of the Church and of the media — that is the problem!

They are leading us, in the name of 'humanity', 'brotherhood', 'compassion', 'one world', etc., to self-destruction.

It is time that we did away with this madness.

It is time that we white people of Britain recovered our instinct of race survival and said: enough! From now on we have no duty to the millions of the 'Third World'; we just have a duty to our own!

Our duty is to give our older people enough to allow them to live decently, to have enough to eat and to keep warm in the colder months.

And we have the duty, at the other end of the scale, to nourish and build up our young — and the more of them the better!

Let all the resources of Britain be devoted to caring for the people of Britain — the native people, that is — the indigenous English, Scots, Welsh and Irish of these islands.

And let the countries of the so-called 'developing world' develop themselves — if they can, without our wet-nursing them.

After all, for a long time these people have been shouting that they're 'independent' of us and 'as good as us'.

It's high time we let them prove it!

Democratically elected!

At the time we go to press an investigation is proceeding within the Labour Party into the activities of members of the Militant Tendency on Liverpool City Council.

Liverpool is of course only the tip of the iceberg. Many other city and county councils have come under the control of left-wing extremists, including Sheffield, Edinburgh, Leicester, South Yorkshire, the GLC and of course many London borough councils.

In all the heated public discussion of this extremist infiltration the most important point seems to have been missed.

It is that these left-wing fanatics have obtained the positions they occupy by the 'democratic' process of elections. They were chosen by 'the people' just as Arthur Scargill was chosen as leader of the miners' union by a 'democratic' vote of the membership.

Having been elected, these left-wingers have then proceeded to carry out policies in no way representative of the wishes of those electing them, lavishing ratepayers' or union members' money on a whole range of barmy schemes, such as 'Gay' social clubs, 'anti-sexist' educational projects and the renaming of streets after African terrorists.

Isn't it all an example of the utter absurdity and farce of the system they call 'democracy'?

It simply proves what we have said for a long time: that the supposition that under 'democracy' the will of the people prevails is just a pathetic illusion.

The real entity that should be on trial is not Liverpool councillors like Derek Hatton or Tony Mulhearn but the system of 'democracy' itself, for it is under that system that the whole sub-

YOUR LETTERS

Sir, I am sick, sore and tired of having Phillipine politics for breakfast, dinner and supper. Of just what concern are the Phillipines to us? Just what does it matter to this country whether that part of the world is ruled by an ageing dictator or an angry widow? The ideological complexion of the Phillipino political system is a total irrelevance to Britain. The course of Phillipine politics would only be of moment to us if we had concrete interests there, which we have not.

Yet I read that considerable time was taken in Parliament discussing the state of affairs in the Phillipines the other day. Just what do our MPs think we pay them for?

As for television, for several nights after the change of government in the Phillipines the issue occupied practically the whole of the first half of the early evening news bulletins.

Are our masters trying to distract our minds from matters nearer home?

Sir, — Mr. Norman Tebbit, speaking to a meeting of US businessmen in London recently attacked those who protest at the threatened General Motors 'take-over' of Leyland as 'anti-American'.

Just supposing that two out of the largest four motor manufacturers in the USA were British-owned and were it proposed to sell one of the others to a British company also, would those Americans who opposed such a scheme be labelled 'anti-British'? Surely not, they would just be standing for patriotism and common sense.

On the other hand, if there is anyone who qualifies to be called 'anti-British' it is Mr. Tebbit.

THE CURRENT INVASION of Australia and New Zealand by non-whites, coupled with the expansion of their indigenous Aboriginal and Maori populations, is now starting to develop into a real threat to the whole future of these mainly Anglo-Saxon-Celtic lands and their predominantly British culture and heritage.

Behind this process lies an increasingly powerful multi-racialist lobby comparable to that that has been instrumental in creating the chaos of multi-racial Britain.

Until recent years all Australian political parties pursued a 'White Australia' policy whereby virtually the only immigration permitted was of capable and productive Whites, for the most part British, of good stock and able and have contributed little to Australian life beyond delinquency and alcoholism, and until recently they were rigorously excluded from the White Man's society, on which it was realised they could only have a ruinous effect.

An 'Aboriginal Development Commission' has now been formed under an Aboriginal agitator called Charles Perkins. Subsidised by white taxpayers to the tune of 154 million Australian

1.2 per-cent of the whole population!

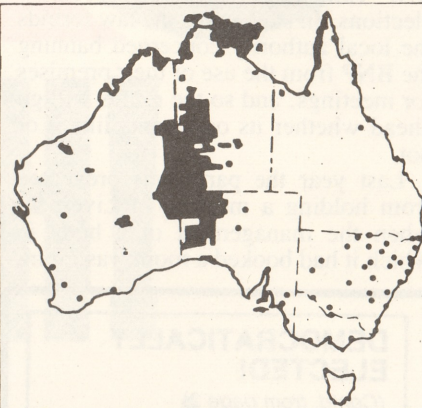

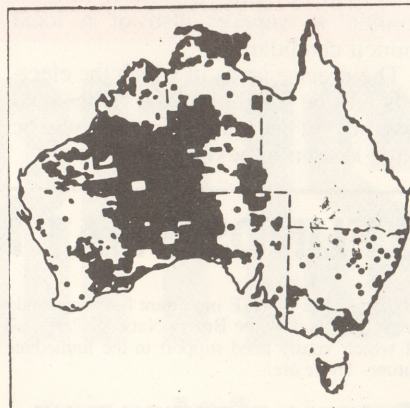

And this is not all. Legislation is now being planned which will increase Aboriginals' share of Australia to 25 per-cent!

The true nature of the danger facing Australia can be seen when it is realised that, huge though her land area is, her population is relatively quite small — at the present count around 14 million. To the North of her are literally billions of Asians hungry for land and minerals. Unless White Australians have the will to maintain their own racial defences, their country will surely eventually be swamped in an Asian tide. At the present time, however, Australia's political leaders, far from having any will to resist this tide, positively welcome it.

NEW ZEALAND

Meanwhile just the same process of racial suicide is taking place in New Zealand, with big increases in non-white (mainly Polynesian) immigration together with a population explosion of the native Maoris.

The white citizens of Auckland, New Zealand's largest city, were recently brought face-to-face with the consequences of multi-racialism. A

THE CARVING UP OF AUSTRALIA

The map on the left shows (in black) the land presently held by Aboriginals. The right-hand map shows the amount of land they will control if present plans materialise. This represents an area about 6-7 times the size of Britain controlled by a people numbering below a quarter of a million and whose contribution to the Australian economy is less than zero

IF BRITISH PEOPLE are not particularly interested in what is happening in Australia and New Zealand, then they should be. These two countries together go to make a continent the total land area of which is about 30 times the size of the United Kingdom. They are both rich in farming resources and, in the case of Australia, also in mineral wealth. Despite recent foreign immigration, the vast majority of the peoples of both countries are of British descent — our kinfolk.

Britain once enjoyed an extremely close family relationship with Australia and New Zealand, out of which all three countries profited immensely. The relationship has in recent years taken a turn for the worse, first through Britain's desertion of her kin to join the Common Market and later through the growing influence of left-wing politicians in Australasia, who have sought to weaken British ties by the promotion of multi-racial policies aimed at making the continent a 'melting pot'.

We believe that the best guarantee of a strong and prosperous future for Britain lies in rebuilding the weakened ties with Australia and New Zealand and forming with those countries, and if possible also with Canada, a new partnership to replace the present multi-racial 'Commonwealth', which has now long outlived its usefulness. For this reason what happens to Australia and New Zealand is of vital concern to all Britons.

willing to assimilate to Australia's way of life. Now that policy is under serious attack from a vicious multi-racialist faction whose subversive propaganda, promoted in the first place by liberal bleeding hearts, do-gooder clergy and media leftists, has been designed to break down white resistance to the alien take-over. This bears all the signs of a re-run of the alien take over of Britain that has been going on since the end of World War II.

INVASION BY STEALTH

As in Britain's case, a coloured population has been introduced into Australia by stealth, the whole process being camouflaged and concealed by lies. The tactics were summed up in 1971 by the then Prime Minister John Gorton, a liberal multi-racialist, when he said: "I think that if we build up gradually inside Australia a proportion of people without white skins then there will be a complete lack of consciousness that it is being built up."

Since then the betrayal of White Australia by its political leaders has gathered momentum. One outcome can be seen in the growth of non-white enclaves in the school system. At the Darra state school 50 per-cent of pupils are of Indo-Chinese origin, whereas only 15 per-cent are of British origin. Needless to say, Indo-Chinese languages have now become a major part of the curriculum.

Meanwhile, just as in Britain the old gang politicians spare no efforts to get Asians into the country under the pretext of 'reuniting families'. Incredibly, the present Government is actually pleading with the Communist Vietnam authorities to allow Vietnamese nationals to rejoin their relatives, originally admitted as 'refugees', in Australia!

The potential scale of the Asian invasion faced by Australia can be gauged from a statement in the Canberra Parliament by the Labour Government's Minister for Immigration and Ethnic Affairs that "thousands of Vietnamese in this country are without their spouses and dependent children, to say nothing of non-dependent children, parents and other categories of people who are also in a priority area."

Not only is the present Labour Government promoting this multi-racial programme but all other political parties, including the main Opposition party, the Liberals, support the same policy.

In addition to all this, White Australia is also being softened up for the multi-racial future through the incitement of its Aboriginal population to rebellion and violence. The Aboriginals, perhaps biologically the lowest grade and most primitive race on earth, dollars (about £74 million) over the space of a year to buy land, these people now control 12½ per-cent of Australia, including no less than 46.6 per-cent of the Northern Territory. The lunacy of this can be seen when it is realised that Aboriginals make up only

WHILE THE MASS MEDIA lose no opportunity to portray the Asian element in Britain as wholly law-abiding, it is necessary to go to the 'ethnic minority' press to get the truth about another side of the story.

The Asian newspaper 'New Life' recently carried reports of gang warfare among Asians in Southall. It is evident from one of these reports that accounts of what it calls "the growing number of attacks by Asian gangs on Asian women, most of them being rape cases," have been allowed by the masters of the larger papers and the rest of the media to go no further than a local West London newspaper, apart from a brief inside page Sunday Mirror report. Certainly, hardly any echo of this story has been heard in any national newspaper or television report, despite the issues of grave public concern which it reveals.

POLICE SUSPICIONS

According to 'New Life', allegations of rape being committed by Asian gangs have been made to the police in Southall, who on their part suspect that far more rapes are being committed than are reported. Apart from the Sunday Mirror report, this matter has only been raised elsewhere in the Ealing Gazette, in which Asian reporter Anwar Tambe is quoted as agreeing with police suspicions that the rape of a young Asian girl in Cranford in 1984 may have been 'on contract' and in order to 'defile' her and make her unsuitable for marriage.

The wall of silence maintained in the Asian community in Bradford in order to defeat police investigations into the Yorkshire heroin traffic centred there has been remarked upon by us before. Similar problems seem to be hampering Southall police probes into local Asian crime. Detective Chief Inspector Chris Albiston has referred to the 'cultural cohesiveness' of the Asian community as being to blame when rape victims fail to report attacks. That those gang activities which have come to light may be no more than the tip of the iceberg is suggested by Inspector Albiston's further statement that "we have also heard of cases of rapes being carried out in revenge. A girl may have been raped and then a revenge attack carried out. But the victim has never come to us."

All this raises the question as to whether Asian immigrants have been allowed to set up closed enclaves in Britain, based on a way of life totally alien to that of the British people, and in which all manner of criminal mayhem can take place virtually in secret, largely unreported and beyond the reach of our own agencies of law enforcement.

Metropolitan Deputy Assistant Commissioner John Newing has remarked of these gangs, which first came to light after the Southall riots in 1981 and have now grown into highly organised crime rackets: "At the moment we are only getting half-truths about these gangs. Now we want evidence against them because we fear they are going to take on a new and frightening dimension."

POLITICIANS' FEAR

One factor which could be instrumental in imposing shackles on the police in their investigation of this area of crime is the increasing note that politicians are now taking of the power of the Asian vote. The extent of political power being surrendered to organised alien elements in Britain is revealed in a 'New Life' profile of the three

WEAPONS OF SOUTHALL GANG WAR
Selection of hardware in police custody

Waltham Forest members of Parliament. All of these, including Chingford MP, Tory Party Chairman and Government Minister Norman Tebbit, crawl for the grace and favour of the Asian element, with its bloc vote, in order to hold their parliamentary seats.

Harry Cohen, Labour MP for Leyton, who describes himself as a 'Cockney Jew', is one of those behind the introduction of a 'racial harassment' bill in Parliament. This is described as very much Cohen's bill. Originally drawn up by the GLC, it has been radically rewritten by Cohen and his wife. Under its provisions, not only could 'racist' tenants be evicted from council dwellings but any white home-owner accused of being a 'racist' could have his home put under compulsory purchase and thereby be thrown off his own property!

In this way are politicians buying the votes of the increasingly powerful 'ethnic communities', who are now getting to the stage at which, with power evenly balanced at Westminster, they could determine the results of a British General Election. No wonder our 'leaders' are frightened to offend them!

It has become our practice in this paper regularly to explain the policy of the British National Party on an important current issue. This month's policy feature is devoted to the long-standing teachers' pay dispute.

BNP policy on the teacher's pay dispute

We believe that the present pay demands being made by teachers should be met but only on conditions that the teaching unions have so far not been prepared to accept. The foremost of these conditions is that standards in the teaching profession are drastically improved and that a regular assessment procedure be adopted to ensure that all teachers maintain the desired standards throughout their careers. Where any teachers fail to do so they should be efficiently 'weeded out' and replaced.

These standards should be upheld, not only in the academic field, but also in respect of basic values taught in the schools, such as discipline, respect for the law, responsibilities of citizenship and, not least, patriotism.

We also want to see teachers who use their classrooms for the indoctrination of their pupils with left-wing propaganda dismissed from their jobs.

Subject to the achievement of satisfactory teaching standards and the regular fixing of pay levels to a figure commensurate with those in other professions requiring the same expertise and responsibility, we feel that there is a strong case for placing teaching along with the armed forces, police and fire service, as one of those professions in which striking is illegal. The case for this rests of course on the fact that teachers' strikes can have appalling, and often irreversible, effects on the school careers of the children involved.

IMPORTANT RALLIES COMING UP IN SPRING

THE BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY will be staging two important public rallies in the Spring of this year in Liverpool and London. In both cases the rallies will be held in support of BNP candidates standing in council elections. In such cases the law forbids the local authority concerned banning the BNP from the use of their premises for meetings, and so the rallies will go ahead whether its opponents like it or not.

Last year the party was prevented from holding a meeting in Liverpool when the management of a hotel in which it had booked a room was intimidated by police and a baying left-wing mob into cancelling the hire agreement. When this happened the party leaders made the promise that they would come back to Liverpool and hold the meeting they had been denied. This they will do on Saturday, April 19th in support of their local candidate.

Two weeks later, on May 3rd, the party will be holding another rally in London in support also of a local council candidate.

The precise areas in which the elections will be fought and the rallies held have not yet been announced but will be made known in next month's issue.

GENERAL ELECTION FUND

The BNP aims to contest a minimum of 20 seats in the next General Election with a full back-up campaign that will cost at least £1,000 per seat — plus, if possible, 30 more seats so as to qualify the party for broadcasting time. In every area local funds are being launched for this purpose but we need in addition a national fund to supplement and, if necessary, underwrite these local funds. Please make cheques out to British National Party General Election Fund.

HEADQUARTERS FUND

The BNP hopes this year to open a headquarters office in the London area staffed by a full-time office manager. We need money to finance this vital project. Some has already been raised but much more is required. Please make cheques out to British National Party Headquarters Fund.

LEGAL DEFENCE FUND

11 BNP members, including the party leader, are facing charges for inciting 'racial hatred' and are due to appear at crown courts in the coming months. We need money to help with their legal expenses. Please make cheques out to British National Party Legal Defence Fund.

All monies should be sent to PO Box 446, London SE23 2LS.

loss of the White Man's healthy survival instinct, this natural demographic process has been reversed. Today the fast-breeding Maori population has been allowed to bounce back from a low of 40,000 at the end of the 19th Century to a level of 350,000 today, against a white population of only 2.7 million whose birthrate is very low, and in an area just fractionally larger than Britain. It has been suggested that at this rate New Zealand would within a century have more Maoris than Whites — and this is without taking into account the more recent non-white immigration.

MAORI CRIME

Maoris' main contribution to New Zealand life is to swell the queues for welfare benefits and greatly to increase the crime rate. More than half the NZ prison population is Maori.

Meanwhile the multi-racialist lobby that has taken over New Zealand as it has Australia pushes hard to boost Maoris and coloured immigrants at the expense of productive Whites. A power shift has been engineered with the appointment of a Governor General for New Zealand, Sir Paul Reeves, who is of Maori descent. Militant Maori agitators demand 'positive discrimination' and 'Maori power', proclaiming that they are engaged in an 'epic war' against the Whites to seize the country from them.

An 'Office of Race Relations' has been established to enforce the gradual dispossession of Whites. The 'front man' in this organisation is a Maori called Hiwi Tauroa, but the real moving force behind the scheme is perhaps best indicated by the fact that the Chairman of the New Zealand Jewish Council, Walter Hirsh, has recently been appointed the country's new 'Race Relations Conciliator'. Hirsh, an advocate of the Zionist doctrines of Jewish Nationalism for his own race, says that his Judaism equips him with the qualities needed for the position! Does this sound familiar?

New Zealand now has a 'Race Relations Act' under which Mr. Tauroa is empowered to ban books displeasing to him.

IN THE SAME BOAT AS US

What is now being done to New Zealand and Australia exemplifies the world-wide onslaught against the White Race — led by that race's own renegades — Britain, Australia and New Zealand are all in the same boat and the sooner their peoples realise it the better. Bound by natural ties of blood, and equally threatened by this alien menace, the Anglo-Saxon family of peoples should be capable of generating a powerful movement of militant White Nationalism in opposition to these cosmopolitan forces.

BOOKS FOR YOUR LIBRARY

Here are just a few of the books available from the BNP Book Service. The figures in brackets represent packing and postage costs. Send cash with orders or write for full list to: PO Box 446, London SE23 2LS.

A WORLD COUP D'ETAT IS PLANNED (Dr. Kitty Little) 50p (12p). Gives details of the destructive effects of treaties foisted on Britain. 1984, 16pp.

THE COLLAPSE OF BRITISH POWER (Correlli Barnett) £8.95 (£1.41). A welcome reissue of a vitally important book first published in 1972. Shows how liberalism and lack of political realism brought about Britain's 20th Century decline in the political, industrial and military fields. 643pp.

THE CONTROVERSY OF ZION (Douglas Reed) £9.00 (£1.41). A best seller in Nationalist circles ever since its publication. A study of Jewish-Gentile relations since Biblical times, packed with little known and long suppressed facts. 1979, 580pp.

THE NAMELESS WAR (Capt. A.H.M. Ramsay) £2.50 (34p). An outline of the secret history of the events leading up to the Second World War, including information on previous upheavals. The author had the honour of being imprisoned without trial for four years during the war, despite his status as a member of parliament. Originally published 1952, 128pp.

NATURE'S ETERNAL RELIGION (Ben Klassen) £6.70 (98p). A controversial and hard-hitting book outlining the author's ideal of a new religion based on the right to survival of the white race. The author in presenting his ideas on this matter makes it plain who represents the threat to white survival. 1973, 508pp.

THE WHITE MAN'S BIBLE (Ben Klassen) £6.70 (98p). A companion volume to the same author's Nature's Eternal Religion in which he expounds his concept of creativity as the religion of the white race. 1981, 451pp.

We should perhaps make it plain that Ben Klassen is strongly critical of the Christian religion and that the many devout Christians we are glad to number among our customers will find much in these books with which to disagree.

THE SIX MILLION RECONSIDERED (W. Grimstad) £2.50 (66p). Examines not only the 'Holocaust' but other topics involved in the Jewish question, including the exploitation of the 'anti-semitic' smear. 1977, 170pp.

NUREMBERG AND OTHER WAR CRIMES TRIALS: A NEW LOOK (Richard Harwood) 75p (34p). A scholarly exposure of this cynical travesty of justice. 1978, 68pp.

RACIAL KINSHIP (H.B. Isherwood) 30p (12p). Shows that a sense of racial identity is an essential element of nationhood. 1974, 36pp.
